The October number of the Century is important for what it promses no less than for what it gives And most important of its promises s, that in the November number it will give the first chapters of "The Authorized Life of Lincoln," by his private secretaries, John G. Nicolay private secretaries, John G. Nicolay and John Hay. It is safe to predict that the popularity of this history of the great President as it appears in serial form will surpass even that of the war papers, which have added so many thousand names to the Cenary's list of subscribers. By way of ntroduction to the series, Carence King contributes a striking paper to the October number on "The Biographers of Lincoln," illustrated with all page portraits of Nicolay and Hay. Other notable features of the October number are an account of SAFE. the literary habits and country life of Bjernson, the Norwegian poet and SURE. statesman, and Matthew Arnold's pa- PROMP per on "Consuon Schools Abroad."

I am first cousin of the late Ex-Gov. Alexander H Stephens, and have been postal clerk on different railroads since 1º68. For ten years I have been t ufferer from a caucer on my face, which grew worse until the discharge of matter became profuse and very offensive. I became thoroughly disgusted with blood purifiers and prononneed them humbugs. as I had tried many without relief.

Finally I was induced to use B. B. B., which was about the lat of February, and continued its use until the latter part of april. The offensive discharge decreased at once and the hardness ar und the cancer disappeared. It improved my general health and I rapidly gained flosh and strength. The discharge gradually decreased and the cancer became less and less in size until nothing remains exthe use of B B. B., bear testimony of my great improvement, and the scar on my face shows that it cured the cancer. I flud that B. B. B. comes squarely up to what it is recommended, and I can not say too much in praise of this wonderful medi cine I have tried them all, but B. B. Stands at the top as a blood purifier.

The above is copied from the Athens (Ga.) Bar ner-Watchman, being the voluntary language of Mr. James A. Greer, which Editor Gantt indorses: "Mr. Greer is an honest, upright citizen of Athens, who had a had cancer, and his numerous friends thought that he could not live very long, as the cancer was gradually sapping the foundation of his constitution, but new looks well and hearty."
